Terms and Conditions

Licensor: Google Cloud EMEA Limited (company number 660412), having its principal place of business at at 70 Sir John Rogerson's Quay, Dublin 2, Ireland

The Chest Order, together with the Licence Terms and Conditions, and any exceptions listed below, create a legally binding contract between your institution, organisation or company and the Licensor. Therefore please read the terms and conditions carefully and only submit a Chest Order if its terms and conditions are acceptable to your institution, organisation or company and you have the authority to make the financial commitment shown.

Licence Type

The Google Workspace for Education agreement is not a standard Chest software agreement. It is subject to the terms and conditions of the Google Workspace for Education terms of service.

This agreement contains variations to these terms and conditions which are available at the bottom of this page under the heading 'Exceptions to Terms and Conditions'.

Exceptions to the Terms and Conditions

The following additional commitments for Jisc customers have been agreed between Jisc and Google:

1 Updates.

Google will notify the Customer of any material update to the URL Terms (including the Cloud Data Processing Addendum) and, except to the extent that the update applies to new functionality or the Cloud Data Processing Addendum or is required to comply with applicable law, will provide such notice 30 days before the update takes effect.

2 Compliance.

Google will only review Customer Data under the "Compliance" section of the Terms of Service as reasonably required to investigate any potential material violation of the AUP by the Customer.

3 Limited Extent and Duration of Suspension.

Any Suspension under Section 4 (Suspension) of the Terms of Service will be to the minimum extent and for the shortest duration required to resolve the cause for Suspension.

4 Refunds.

If the Customer orders the Services directly from Google and terminates the Terms of Service for Google's uncured material breach, Google will refund to the Customer any unused prepaid Fees that the Customer paid to Google for use of the Services applicable to the period following termination. If the Customer orders the Services from a Reseller under a Reseller Agreement, any refunds will be governed by the "Resold Customers" section of the Terms of Service. Subject to the foregoing terms of this Section 1.5 (Refunds) and unless required by law, termination or non-renewal under any section of the Terms of Service (including the Cloud Data Processing Addendum) will not oblige Google to refund any Fees to the Customer.

5 Google Liability Cap.

Subject to Sections 5.2 (Exclusions from Liability) and 5.3 (Unlimited Liabilities) of the General Terms agreed between Google and JSL, Google's total aggregate Liability to any Customer for loss or damage arising out of or relating to the Customer's Terms of Service, the Services or this Agreement will be limited to the greater of: (a) 110% of the Fees paid or payable for the Services by the Customer in the twelve-month period immediately preceding the first event giving rise to the Liability; and (b) £50,000.

The General Terms agreed between Google and JSL can be made available to Jisc members on request. Please contact help@chest.ac.uk

6 Publicity.

Google will use reasonable endeavours to cease any specific use of the Customer's name or Brand Features after receiving a notice from the Customer setting out the Customer's objection to such use.
